Ron Lee
Born in Melbourne in 1930, Ron gained B.A. Hons (history), University of Melbourne (and Queen’s College), an M. Div. at Garrett Theological Seminary (U.S.), a Ph. D. (psychology) at Northwestern University, and a year’s Post-Doctoral Fellowship, Menninger Foundation, Topeka, Kansas. After immersing himself in practicing psychotherapy using Kohut’s Psychoanalytic Self Psychology, he first-authored Psychotherapy After Kohut (1991), Five Kohutian Postulates (2009), and published Special Positive Experiences (2011) as a result of co-teaching an Extension Course for PLC students. He is Founding President of the Empathink Association for Psychoanalytic Self Psychology, an affiliate of the International Association. He is an Honorary Senior Fellow of the medical faculty, Department of Psychiatry, University of Melbourne, supervises psychotherapy cases of psychiatric registrars at St. Vincent’s Hospital, and lectured on Kohut for 15 years in the MPM program. Since 2009, Ron has been Honorary Advisor, Department of Psychiatry, New Territories East Cluster, Hong Kong. He has produced six DVDs (10 power point presentations each) called, Advancing and Broadening Psychoanalytic Self Psychology. Ron still practices psychotherapy, supervises and teaches from his Gurdies home and the Gertrude Street Clinic.

Richard Inglis
Richard Inglis is a Consultant Psychiatrist. He works part-time in public practice in Bendigo as a Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist, and part-time in private practice in Melbourne, where he has an adult psychotherapy and general psychiatry practice. Rick was born and brought up in the UK. He graduated from University and Medical School in Cambridge and London. He then worked as a junior doctor in the South East of England until 2004. Just over a decade ago he moved to Australia where he finished his psychiatry training. Over the last two years Rick has been an enthusiastic member of Ron Lee’s Friday morning seminar group. He is also receiving psychotherapy supervision from a Self Psychology perspective from Ron and recently attended the 2015 IAPSP International Conference. Rick is married with one son and in his free time enjoys playing soccer with his friends.

Sandra Lauffenburger
Sandra Lauffenburger maintains a clinical practice in Self Psychologically-based Psychotherapy in Canberra, Australia. She incorporates her long expertise in somatics and movement, which has allowed her to work effectively with presentations such as medically unexplained symptoms (MUS), chronic illnesses, PTSD, complex trauma, personality disorders, and borderline presentations. Sandra lectures at graduate and tertiary levels in Movement and Somatic Psychotherapy. Most recently she developed and presented a semester course titled “Using Somatics and Movement in Counselling” for the University of Canberra, Faculty of Health. Sandra is an Associate Editor of the Journal for Body, Movement and Dance in Psychotherapy. She offers face to face and Skype supervision for practitioners who want to include the dynamic body in their therapeutic practice. She is a faculty member of the EAPSP Introductory Course.

Greta von Gavel
After spending many years working with the physical structure and movement of the body as a Physiotherapist, her interest in an integrated, experiential and inclusive approach to well-being led her to study further. Movement sciences and therapy, pain research, meditation practices, physical or physiological and psychological trauma theory and treatment, Somatics and Self Psychological Psychotherapy have provided the framework and capacity for her to relate to, understand, integrate and deeply touch the many rich aspects of (patients) emotions, thoughts, bodily structures, movement and neurophysiology. She works privately in Canberra Australia, predominantly with clients with chronic spinal and musculoskeletal pain conditions.
Miranda Chan
Miranda Chan completed her undergraduate medical training in the Chinese University of Hong Kong in 2007. She developed interests in psychotherapy during her postgraduate psychiatric training. She worked and trained in the Psychotherapy Team of Tai Po Hospital under Dr. Teresa Chan since 2010. Miranda has particular interests in Psychodynamic Psychotherapy. She had completed the two-year training programme in Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy organized by the China American Psychoanalytic Alliance (CAPA), and received supervision by Dr. Ann-Louise Silver. She is the Secretary of the executive committee of the Psychotherapy Division with the Hong Kong College of Psychiatrists, helping out in organizing various psychotherapy workshops and training. Miranda is currently a Resident Specialist in General Adult Psychiatry and Psychotherapy Team at Tai Po Hospital, Hong Kong.

Peter McKay
Peter McKay is a Somatic Psychotherapist with a private practice in the Melbourne CBD and Hampton. Peter became interested in Self Psychology while studying at the ACCSP and he uses this modality to inform the way he works with individuals and groups. In addition to seeing private clients he co-facilitates workshops on emotionally intelligent parenting and social and emotional learning for children.

Josh White
Josh White is a Consultant Psychiatrist with a specialized interest in Perinatal Mental Health and Founding Director of the Gertrude Street Clinic, located directly behind St Vincent’s Hospital Fitzroy, from where he also consults to the St Vincent’s Private Hospital Maternity Unit and Special Care Nursery, and to the City of Yarra Maternal Child Health & Family Services. He also provides supervision to St Vincent’s Hospital Psychiatry Trainees and is a faculty member of the EAPSP Introductory Course.

Angie Rountree
Angie Rountree is a graduate of the Melbourne College of Contemporary Psychotherapy who conducts psychotherapy in private practice in Melbourne using Psychoanalytic Self Psychology. She is a faculty member of the EAPSP Introductory Course, and co-author of Five Kohutian Postulates (2009).

Sally McMahon
Sally McMahon is a Social Worker and psychotherapist in private practice in Melbourne using Psychoanalytic Self Psychology. She is a graduate of the Australian College of Contemporary Somatic Psychotherapy where she taught for a number of years. She is a faculty member of the EAPSP Introductory Course, president elect of EAPSP and co-author of Five Kohutian Postulates (2009).

Jeff Ward
Jeff Ward is a Registered Psychologist in private practice (ACT). He is currently the President of EAPSP. Formerly, he was Lecturer, Department of Psychology, Australian National University. He teaches on the Buddhism and Psychotherapy Program of the Australian Association of Buddhist Counselors and Psychotherapists, as well as being on the faculty of the EAPSP Introductory Course.

Graeme Gibbons
Graeme Gibbons is a Registered Psychologist, and has been a member of the APS since 1989. For over thirty years he was the Director of the Clinical Pastoral Education Center at Austin Hospital. He began a Journey with Self Psychology in 1995 and currently practices as a psychotherapist and supervisor in Yallambie, Victoria. He is the Immediate Past President of EAPSP.
